

Creative

Relating to or involving the imagination or original ideas, especially in the production of an artistic work which could include manipulation of images through camera technique (such as ICM intentional camera movement) or use of filters, brushes, etc. so that the image does not reflect reality.